

Notable Community Service

- Commissioner for Milwaukee Metropolitan Sewer District, Present
- Chairman of the Board of Directors for Journey House Center for Family and Youth Athletics, 2008- Present
- Advisory Board Director for Local Initiative Support Corporation, 2008- Present
- Treasurer Zilber Neighborhood Initiative for Clarke Square 2008- Present

Notable Development Projects

- St Marcus Lutheran School Expansion 2011
- Journey House New Center for Family and Learning and Youth Athletics 2012,
- Journey House New Packer Football Stadium 2013,
- West Lawn Housing Project 2012

Notable Awards/Appointments

- Mayoral Appointment to Milwaukee Metropolitan Sewer District June 2014
- PNC Circle of Excellence 2011
- Milwaukee's Business Journal 40 under forty (2003)
- Congressional Intern for Representative Jose E. Serrano 5th District of New York

Eugene Manzanet, after serving eight years in the United States Marine Corps Reserve has dedicated his time and energy to serving the Milwaukee area as resource of information for financial education, community and economic development. As a current resident and home owner of the near northwest side of Milwaukee he originally was born in New York City and raised in the heart of the “South Bronx”. He has been in the banking industry for twenty two years and in a variety of roles and capacities. Currently serving as the Vice President Community Development Banking for PNC Bank where he provides direct support to community social services organizations with financial resources to increase homeownership, enhances small businesses growth and supports economic development through catalytic projects in south eastern Wisconsin.

Eugene has served on numerous non-profit boards and advisory councils throughout the Milwaukee area over the past ten years. He is extremely passionate about his work within disenfranchised communities and is committed to making it his life's work help in enhancing the quality of life in Milwaukee. Although committed to community work, his true passion is raising his three boys Gabriel, Emanuel, Mateo and daughter Malia with his wife Gladys.

Eugene attended The College of the Holy Cross in Worcester, Massachusetts where he developed his passion for social responsibility as a student majoring in history. He has continued his education locally at Cardinal Stritch University earning a Bachelors Science Business Administration, a Master's Degree in Business Administration and currently a Doctoral Candidate in Leadership for the advancement of Learning and Service.
